TERMS

1. Scope. The contractor performs the work described above and in the attached estimate. Any change is agreed in writing on a Change Order before it is done.
2. Independent contractor. The contractor works independently, supplies tools and controls how the work is done. Nothing here creates an employment relationship.
3. Materials. Materials are included unless listed otherwise. Client-supplied materials are the client's responsibility.
4. Payment. The deposit is due on signing; the balance is due on completion. Late payments may carry the fee shown below.
5. Site access. The client provides access, utilities and a clear work area during agreed hours.
6. Delays. The contractor is not responsible for delays caused by weather, material shortages or hidden conditions; the client is informed promptly.
7. Warranty. Workmanship is guaranteed for the period shown below. Manufacturer warranties apply to materials.
8. Insurance and permits. The contractor carries general liability insurance. Permits are obtained by the party shown below.
9. Cancellation. Either party may cancel in writing; work completed and materials ordered up to that date are paid.
